Question of the week #39

Deleted Amino

04/05/19

"Since, in the long run, every planetary civilization will be endangered by impacts from space, every surviving civilization is obliged to become spacefaring--not because of exploratory or romantic zeal, but for the most practical reason imaginable: staying alive... If our long-term survival is at stake, we have a basic responsibility to our species to venture to other worlds." —Carl Sagan

Hello Everybody, DM's here ☺ I hope you all are doing fine! Most of you must have finished your final exams ☺. I hope you all will get good grades :innocent: and be victorious in your battle :triumph: .

So now it's time for our Question of the week! And the topic is:

:milky_way: What're the pros and cons of Space Colonization? Will it be a boon or a catastrophe for humanity?

:milky_way: When do you think we will be able to colonize in Space? A few decades, a century or even more? Justify your answer.

:milky_way: What're the possibilities that we can colonize in Mars? What type of technological advances do we need to support the possibilities?

:milky_way: What're the possibilities that we can colonize in our Moon? What kind of technological advances do we need to do to adjust in Lunar environment?

Europa, Titan and other moons of Jupiter(The Jovian System) and Saturn(The Saturnian System)? How can we make it happen?

:milky_way: What do you think about colonizing in other planets or moons in our Solar system? Can we make it happen? What're the hinderances?

:milky_way: What do you think about colonizing in exoplanets? Can you give some examples of suitable exoplanets?

:milky_way: If you have done any space colony designs, show us your work by either making a separate post about it or including the pictures in the comments.

:milky_way: "Escaping Earth is about much more than dodging the bullet of extinction" share your ideas and opinions about this statement.
